Dear First Grade Parents,

Welcome to First Grade! We are looking forward to a great 2017-2018 school year with your child. Our curriculum is largely centered around the Open Court Reading Series. As we prepared this suggested summer reading list, we are listing books that coincide with each Unit. See you soon,

Unit 1: Games

The Great Ball Game by Joseph Bruchac

Why do birds fly south for the winter? This tale tells all.

Henry and Mudge and the Wild Wind by Cynthia Rylant

Find out how Dad turns a scary storm into a fun game for Henry and his dog, Mudge.

Ronald Morgan Goes to Bat by Patricia Reilly Giff

Ronald can't catch, but his team needs him just the same.

What Game Shall We Play? by Pat Hutchins

What game does Wise Owl say that animal friends should play?

Unit 2: Folktales

Anansi the Spider by Gerald McDermott

Something you see at night is the reward Anansi gave his sons. What is it?

Hosni the Dreamer: An Arabian Tale by Ehud Ben-Ezer

Could buying a verse save your life and bring you happiness?

How Rabbit Lost His Tail by Ann Tompert

Why is Rabbit up a willow tree? What does he leave there?

Tops and Bottoms by Janet Stevens

Find out what Hare is up to while Bear snoozes in his favorite chair.

Unit 3: Keep Trying

Amazing Grace by Mary Hoffman

Grace's determination to be Peter Pan will amaze you

Fox on the Job by James Marshall

Fox needs a new bike and the means he has to get a job.

Mirette on the High Wire by Emily Arnold McCully

Join Mirette high above Paris, when she learns to walk the high wire.

Unit 4: Being Afraid

Anna Banana and Me by Lenore Blegvad

Find out how Anna helps her friend to be brave.

Granddaddy's Place by Helen Griffith

Janetta's afraid of the animals on Granddaddy's farm.

I Hear a Noise by Diane Goode

What happens when a monster gets scared and needs his mother?

Storm in the Night by Mary Stolz

On a dark and stormy night, Grandfather tells Thomas about another storm long ago.
